BEACH CLUB UPDATE

The Kids Beach Club, that we of Eules First United Methodist Church sponsor at South Eules Elementary School, celebrated its Great Treasure Day on Tuesday, March 3. It was a fun and exciting day for all involved!

God's Word is the greatest treasure on earth and the centerpiece of all that happens at Kids Beach Club. On this special day, each of the 56 children present was given a Bible of their very own to read, study, share and help them grow in their relationship with God.

God is doing a mighty work here through this ministry.

Thank you Eules First's congregation for your continued support of service, prayers and financial assistance!

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Come join us for Eggvangelism! We're going to be assembling bags with information about our church, an invitation to our Easter services, some information about Easter and a few treats. It's March 28 at 10:30am in the Family Life Center. Once we're done we'll be taking the bags out to the surrounding neighborhoods and apartments. Last year was wonderful! I'm positive it will be just as great, if not better, this year! Remember that before you come to Eggvangelism, there will be a rehearsal for the children involved in the Palm Sunday portion of the Easter Cantata at 10am in the sanctuary. Carla Fink will be leading the children in their practice and performance on Sunday. If you have not received a copy of the music or CD, and would like your child to participate please send an email to children@fumceuleless.org to let me know! Also, please remember to send your child with an Easter basket or bag for the Egg Hunt following the Palm Sunday Luncheon after the 11 o'clock service. If you are able, please bring a dozen filled plastic eggs to contribute to the hunt, it would be greatly appreciated. On Easter Sunday (April 5) there will be no Children's Sunday School. Instead, head over to the Family Life Center and join us for a brunch potluck!

April 25 is our next movie day in the Swor Parlor. Be sure to mark your calendars with these important dates! You won't want to miss them!

Vacation Bible School is right around the corner!! I am still in need of a few teachers and lots of shepherds to lead the classes! If you're interested, or know someone who is, please have them email me or call the church office (817) 283-4421 for more information! Registration for children will be open soon, so make room for the week of June 22 for G-Force: God in Action! It is going to be a super fun summer! I hope to see you there!

HIGHWAY UPDATE

The groundbreaking event that was scheduled a couple of weeks ago now was canceled or postponed due to ice and snow. But the project goes on!

Last week the developer contacted us to schedule an appraisal of our land and facility. In consultation with our attorney, we expect to have this done before the end of March. Approximately a month after that, we believe that we can expect to receive an initial offer.

Our Church Leadership has met a couple of times this year in the interest of keeping up with the process. We still don't know what the future holds for us, but we know who holds the future!

In the next month or so, we will be holding a series of meetings to answer questions and to seek your input.

Thank you for continuing to pray for God's guidance on this, as well as everything else, in the life of our church.

YOUTH MINISTRY

BE. LOVE. SERVE.

We Want Your Stuff! One of the ways that E1ement

Students will be raising funds this Spring, to help cover the costs for Central Texas Conference Youth in Mission (CTCYM) and other service projects, is to host a Rummage Sale, and we want your stuff! If you have items that you would like to donate for our cause, please begin setting them aside. We will be able to receive your donated items Wednesday, March 25th through Friday, March 27th anytime between 12:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m.

The Rummage Sale will take place 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Saturday, March 28th. If you don't have rummage to donate, rest assured that you can help us out in other ways in the coming months. If you can't wait till March 25th to donate, contact Shane Mullin at shanemullin@gmail.com.

We will be hosting one of our fabulous carwashes sometime after Easter, and you can always help us get the word out about our annual booth at ArborDaze (April 25-26). Thanks for all of your support!

FROM THE PASTOR

I enjoy listening to your stories. I appreciate the experiences you share with me, and the lessons you have learned. Chances are, if you have learned something from a season of life, sharing that story can help someone else learn, too.

I have learned. One of the things I have learned from almost everyone of you who work our Food Pantry is that you cannot judge a person by the car they drive.

But then you realize you don't know their story and that, perhaps, you'd rather give someone a bag of food than ask them to sell their car for a meal.

We don't know their whole story. For that matter you don't know my whole story, and I don't know your whole story.

But we do know that our stories intersect and overlap. Our stories are travelling together here and now.

Right now, during Lent, our stories are travelling together away from excess. We know that while the world around us calls us toward more and more, Jesus calls us the other direction.

Exactly what the path to Jesus and away from excess looks like is different for each of us. Our paths are similar, yet not exactly the same.

I hope this Lenten Series - our mutiny against excess - is stirring up good conversations among you about how you follow Jesus in the face of the temptation to excess.

SPRING EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The mission of Eules First United Methodist Church is to strive to follow Jesus Christ a bit better today than yesterday. We seek to follow Jesus better by moving people from knowing God; to growing in relationship with God, to going forth with God to serve others; and finally, glowing for God by witnessing to their faith to others. We accomplish this through our Discipleship Plan or Discipleship Journey - an intentional process by which we guide persons via Individual Studies, Small Group Studies, and Retreat Events. Here are two upcoming Discipleship Journey Events.

First, God's Grand Plot is a one day retreat event. It provides a view of the entire Bible as one story of God's hand on the human journey. The day includes a historical overview of the Bible, the Bible's organization, and how God's story affects the human heart. God's Grand Plot will be Saturday, April 11, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. in the Swor Parlor. There is no cost and materials will be provided. Registration is requested to ensure enough materials. Please contact the church office by Thursday, April 9, to register at 817-283-4421, or go online to register on our website, fumceless.org.

Second, Serving From the Heart is scheduled for April 18 from 10 to 12, and April 25 and May 2 from 9 to 3 in the Swor Parlor. Serving From the Heart helps to meet the challenges ahead by discovering your gifts and talents now. God's plan for the church calls for each member of the Body of Christ to play a vital role. Sometimes we think that serving God is an obligation, a duty, and that it isn't meant to be enjoyable. The truth is, though, that God wants us to find joy and fulfillment when we serve. That happens when we serve in a role that matches who God created us to be.

Serving From the Heart is a journey of self-discovery as one learns more about how the Body of Christ is intended to function, and what that means to each person.

Please contact the church office by Sunday, April 12, to register at 817-283-4421, or go online to register on our website, fumceless.org.

PRESCHOOL

The circus came to town! Our Cherub and PK1 classes were quite entertaining as clowns, acrobats, tigers, elephants, and monkeys. Pictures can be viewed on our Facebook page at FUMC Preschool Eules. Our Tuesday/Thursday circus had to be postponed to March 17 due to inclement weather, but the show must go on!

Registration is going on right now for the Fall. Please let friends and relatives with preschool age children know about our wonderful program. For more information, please contact Linda Lewis, or visit the preschool webpage— you can find a link from the churches front page at fumceless.org.

STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Raising Cheerful Givers

Part 5 of 7 –

CONTENTMENT AND DELAYED GRATIFICATION

This is fifth in a series of articles on “Raising Cheerful Givers”. Helping our children understand financial principles will not only help them manage their money, but also become joyful stewards. It is very easy for children and adults to think about all the things they want. It might be something someone else has or something shown on television. In a world where there are so many things, there is always something that is better than what we already have. Too often, the quest to have the best becomes all consuming – and ultimately less and less satisfying. Contentment does not come from material things. But that is a hard lesson to teach. So what does correlate with happiness? It is the attitude that Paul describes in Phil. 4:11-12 as learning to be content. When we are content with what we have, we are more likely to appreciate God’s gifts to us. But how can we demonstrate that fact to children? Even at an early age they experience the desire to have more and more, especially something someone else has. If that desire remains unchecked, it turns into ugly patterns of expectation and entitlement. It is unrealistic to expect our children not to be enticed by more things or to experience peer pressure as they get older. But children who don’t know how to control their appetites often become adults who are drowning in debt. As parents, it is our responsibility to model control techniques. One of these is delayed gratification. When children see Mom setting aside some money each week to make a major purchase – in fact, when they help Mom by charting the progress toward a goal - they become participants in delayed gratification. Such an exercise shows them how to work towards a goal and helps temper their appetite for more. With delayed gratification, there is a sense of responsibility and expectation. It teaches discipline, restraint and impulse control. They begin to realize how methodical savings can lead to a goal they can truly appreciate. As Dr. David G. Myers states in his book, The Pursuit of Happiness, “Happiness depends less on having things than on our attitude toward the things we have.” He also notes that well-being is something other than being well-off. Helping our children examine what is meaningful and then having the courage to confront the corrosive quest to always want the best brings a sense of contentment to our children and to our families.
